BARRETT TOWNSHIP HISTORICAL SOCIETY PRESENTS

Quilts of the Revolutionary Period by Jackie Magann, a Bicentennial Living History Volunteer at Valley Forge National Park

Barrett Paradise Friendly Library

Friday, November 20, 2026 - 2:00 PM – Open to the Public

Shown here is the Saltonstall Quilt, circa 18th century, made from small silk triangles stretched over paper templates using a patchwork quilting technique called paper piecing. At the center of the quilt is an applique angel figure with outstretched arms and unfurled wings.
